

Getting around

DOMOTEL OLYMPIA

HO Olympia

URBAN CHIC HOTEL

DOMOTEL
THESSALONIKI

Nea Paralia

Thessaloniki is known for Nea Paralia (Thessaloniki Beach Promenade), its most popular place for a city walk, which brings visitors by the well-known White Tower and the vibrant Nikis Square.

The Ladadika District

Contradictions are both beautiful and intriguing in the Ladadika District at a 10-minute walk from Domotel Olympia, which is both Thessaloniki's "old town" and a buzzing destination for gastronomy and entertainment.

Extraordinary Churches

In Thessaloniki there are many important churches. One of them is the Church of Agios Dimitrios, which is dedicated to the city's special saint and was built a long time ago, in the 7th century AD. Also, Agios Dimitrios is the city's special saint. Underneath the church, there are tunnels called catacombs that are a part of Thessaloniki's history.

The Historic Heart Of The City

The city centre of Thessaloniki is teeming with structures and institutions, which are part of its rich history and culture. Its Monastir Synagogue is a historic building, which was constructed in the early 20th century and saved during World War II by a Red Cross requisition, at a walking distance of 5 minutes from the hotel.

Thessaloniki Food Tour

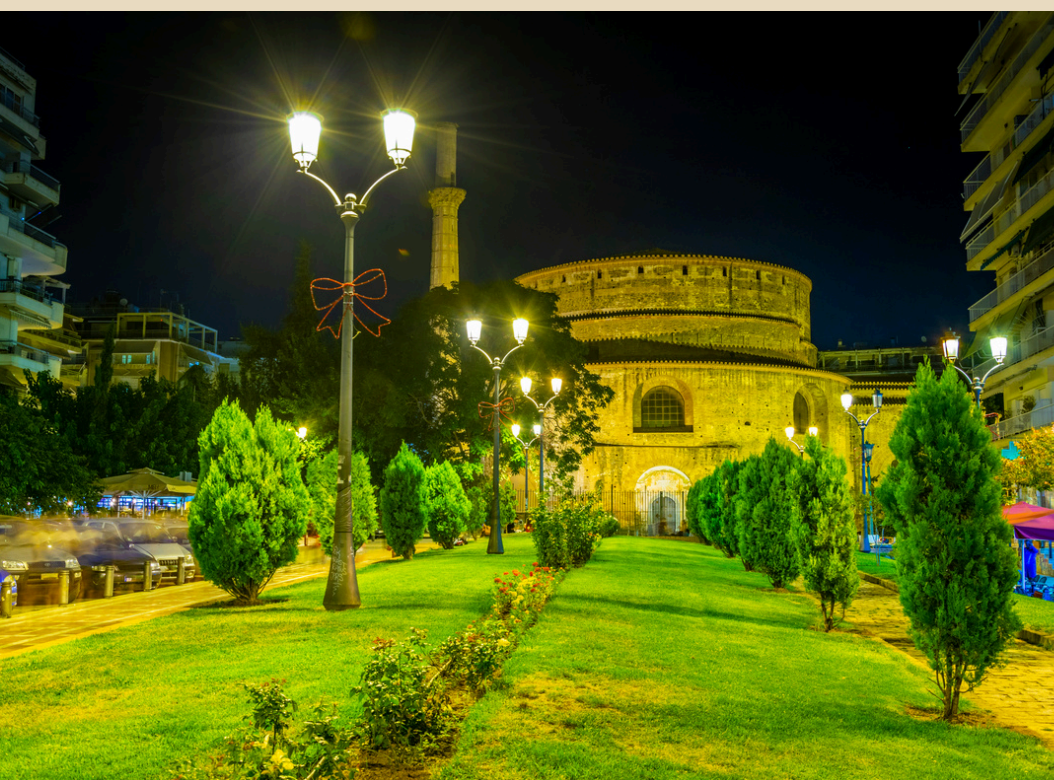

Visitors to Thessaloniki will discover a city rich in culinary delights, where they can sample a variety of local specialties while, exploring the Thessaloniki Food Tour.

Bit Bazar

Just down the street from Domotel Olympia, the Bit Bazar is one of Thessaloniki's treasured destinations, still fairly unknown by tourists. Surrounded by tall buildings, this inner square is filled with quaint antique shops, as well as traditional tavernas with outdoor seating that serve wine and local delicacies.

Museums & Monuments

For a taste of antiquity, tour the Archaeological Museum of Thessaloniki, filled with exhibits from various eras of Greece's ancient history, and visit the Rotunda of Galerius, the oldest Orthodox church in the city, which was constructed over a millennium ago.

Vergina

Located at a distance of under one hour from Domotel Olympia, Vergina, a picturesque village in Imathia, was a centre of the ancient world as the first capital of Macedonia.

Mount Olympus

The tallest mountain in Greece and a destination that played a central role in Greek mythology, Mount Olympus was known to be the “home of the Greek Gods” and has now become a popular climbing spot for sports enthusiasts.

Kerkini Lake

Found at a distance of an 1,30 hrs by car from Domotel Olympia, Kerkini Lake is a blissful natural heaven between Mount Bales and the vast Valley of Serres. This wetland habitat is home to nearly 300 different species of wildlife, including graceful flamingoes and great buffalos.

Dion

Found at the northern edge of Mount Olympus, Dion is an ancient city at a distance of one hour from Thessaloniki, considered a place of holy nature by the early Macedonians; here, Alexander the Great made sacrifices to Greek God Zeus before each of his expeditions.

Amphipolis

Amphipolis, located approximately 60 kilometers east of Thessaloniki in northern Greece, is an ancient city with strategic importance in history.

Founded by Athenians, it later came under Macedonian control, playing a key role in Alexander the Great's campaigns. Today, it's an archaeological site revealing its rich past, including the iconic Lion of Amphipolis.

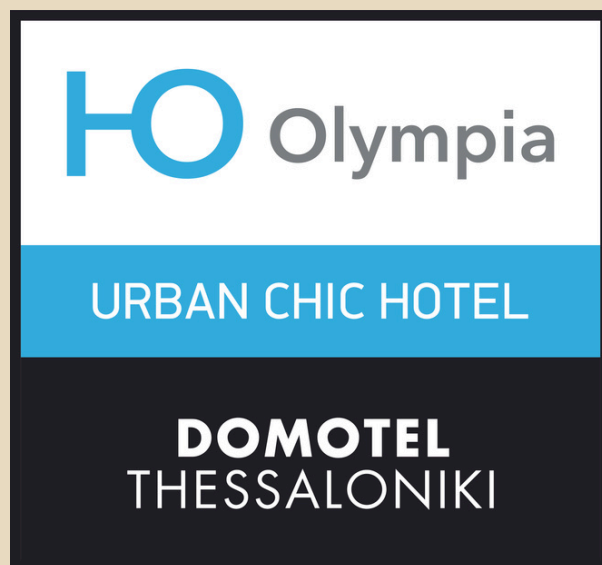

Pozar Thermal Baths

Pozar Baths is a popular thermal spa in northern Greece, known for its healing hot springs set amidst picturesque scenery. Located approximately 90 kilometers from Thessaloniki, it offers to visitors a tranquil escape to unwind and rejuvenate in the mineral-rich waters, surrounded by lush greenery and cascading waterfalls.

Enjoy your stay at

DOMOTEL OLYMPIA

For more information, please contact Hotel's
Reception